Donald J. Trump, billionaire businessman and reality TV show star, was elected as the 45th president of the United States on Nov. 8. While his opponent, Democrat Hillary Clinton, the first woman nominated by a major political party to run for president, received more popular votes, Trump won in the Electoral College, 304-227. He is the first non-military leader and non-politician to win the job.

Trump said it was time for Americans "to come together as one united people." In her concession speech, Clinton said, "Donald Trump is going to be our president. We owe him an open mind and a chance to lead." President Obama reminded Americans that we are "all on the same team."

Trump, a Republican, was inaugurated on Jan. 20 and went to work with a Republican majority in both the House and Senate.

Long-time sports broadcaster Craig Sager died after a long battle with cancer. Sager was known as an NBA sideline reporter for TNT and TBS, earning many Emmys and accolades for his entertaining interviews and commentary.

After 108 years, it finally happened. The Chicago Cubs ended the longest championship drought in sports when they defeated the Cleveland Indians in seven games to win the 2016 World Series.

Naturally it wasn't easy, as the Cubs became just the sixth team in baseball history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit to do it. The seventh and final game dramatically went into extra innings, and through a rain delay, before Chicago clinched an 8-7 win.

The city of Chicago estimated that nearly five million fans swarmed into downtown Chicago two days later to attend the Cubs victory parade.

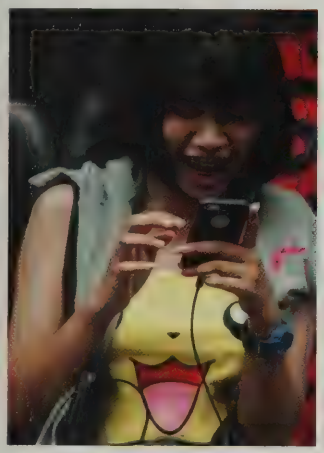

Drug manufacturer Mylan faced harsh criticism after costs of their EpiPen injection device, commonly used to treat those who suffer severe allergic reactions, soared to $600. Mylan responded by releasing a generic version.

Audiences flocked to theaters around the December holidays to see "Rogue One: A Star Wars Story."

The new stand-alone film was unique, as it was the first spin-off in the Star Wars series. It told the origin story of the Death Star, and the group of rebel spies who stole the plans to destroy it.

"Rogue One" earned more than $200 million at the box office in its first week, making it the second biggest December movie opening ever, only behind another Star Wars movie, "The Force Awakens."

Fans were shocked and saddened by the deaths of several entertainment icons.

Actress Carrie Fisher, most famous for playing the role of Princess Leia in the Star Wars movies, died two days after Christmas after suffering a heart attack on a flight. Fisher's mother, actress/singer Debbie Reynolds, tragically passed away the following day.

Pop star George Michael, who sold more than 100 million records worldwide and had eight number one hit songs in the U.S., died at his home in England on Christmas Day.

Rock star Prince, the multiple Grammy Award winning artist remembered for his flamboyant stage presence and innovative sound, also passed away at his Minneapolis-area home.

Smart speakers, like Amazon Echo and Google Home, became available for the first time. The voice-controlled devices worked like home personal assistants, with the ability to play music and audio-books, provide news and weather and connect with other devices in the home.

Carpool Karaoke, a regular segment on "The Late Late Show with James Corden," became popular on YouTube. The segments, which showed Corden driving around Los Angeles singing with musical guests, featured Madonna, Mariah Carey and Bruno Mars this year among others.

New England Patriots quarterback Tom Brady led the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history in Super Bowl LI, as the Patriots rallied from down 28-3 in the second half to defeat the Atlanta Falcons, 34-28 in overtime.

Brady was chosen the game's MVP after throwing for 466 yards, another Super Bowl record, and leading New England to 19 fourth-quarter points to tie the game. It was the fifth championship for Brady and coach Bill Belichick.

The heartbreaking loss for Atlanta prevented the Falcons from winning their first Super Bowl in team history.

Netflix TV series "Stranger Things" told the story of a 12-year old boy who disappears from his Indiana town in the 1980s and the search to find him. The show became a hit with more than 14 million viewers in the first month.

Viewed by many as a tribute to 80s pop culture and inspired by the works of Steven Spielberg and George Lucas, the show also received critical acclaim and made stars out of its quartet of young actors, including Millie Bobby Brown and Finn Wolfhard.

A second season of "Stranger Things" was scheduled for release in 2017.

The Ringling Bros. Circus, often known as "The Greatest Show on Earth," announced they would be ending operations after 146 years in business, due to declining attendance and rising costs.
